

Relief Crisis Counsellor Wheatland Crisis Society - Strathmore, Alberta

Relief Crisis Counsellors are responsible for responding to client and agency needs as they arise, and for providing individual and group counselling, crisis intervention, intervention, and problem-solving skills. We are a 24/7 operation, so our counselling team must be available to work all shifts, independently and within a team-based environment.

Qualifications required: minimum social work diploma or equivalent education, registration in appropriate professional agency, and understanding of family abuse.

Confidentiality, professional boundaries, and a clear understanding of ethics are paramount to all positions at WCS.

In addition, CPR, First Aid training, police and child welfare clearances, and a clean driving record are required.

To apply, please send an email to wcs.jobs@wcsab.ca and attach your resume.

Competition will remain open until suitable candidates are found.

We would like to thank all applicants in advance. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted. Positions are posted internally and externally.
