

Wheatland Crisis Society

To the Wheatland Crisis Society community,

With sadness and gratitude, The Board at Wheatland Crisis Society are announcing the resignation of our CEO Wanda McGinnis:

"To the community and stakeholders,

After much consideration I am announcing my resignation as Chief Executive Officer of the Wheatland Crisis Society. The Wheatland Crisis Society is in good hands as they move into the future, championed by an invested Board of Directors, amazing program teams and a strong network of allies. I am confident the Wheatland Crisis Society will continue to work tirelessly as innovators and pioneers in the Domestic Violence sector.

As my last day of June 4, 2021, approaches I am reflecting upon and appreciating the opportunities I have had to work with each of you. Your passion and commitment to supporting and improving domestic violence response in the Province of Alberta is remarkable. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you!

Thank you for answering and asking hard questions, for guiding and at times directing me, and finally for unconditionally including me in a sector so committed to making communities safer.

Warmly, Wanda McGinnis "

We are immensely grateful for Wanda's leadership the past 6 years, and for the numerous positions she has filled during her 14 years at WCS. Together with the board and the staff, she has strengthened strategic partnerships with our community and has helped stabilize organizational processes and improve growth within our organization. Wanda leaves WCS in a very strong position for continued growth and we sincerely thank her for her contribution and leadership in her time here. The board wishes Wanda all the best for her future endeavors.

Wanda's last day will be on Friday, June 4th, 2021. The board will be bringing in an interim CEO to assist but will continue to oversee the process of permanently filling the position. We are confident that Wanda and the WCS leadership team will make this a smooth transition for WCS staff, our clients, partners, and supporters. If you have any questions about the transition or the organization, please reach out to Wanda and the WCS leadership team.

Sincerely,
Joyce Li
