

Wheatland Crisis Society

To the Wheatland Crisis Society community and stakeholders,

The Board has appointed Carol Mason McLeod as interim CEO of Wheatland Crisis Society.

In order to ensure a smooth transition, Carol will bring her wealth of knowledge and experience to WCS starting Tuesday May 25th, 2021. Together with Wanda, the leadership team, and all staff, she looks forward to continuing all the excellent work being done and ensuring the stability of WCS during this transitional period. Carol looks forward to meeting and getting to know everyone at WCS. Please welcome Carol to our WCS team. If you have any questions, please reach out to Carol, Wanda, and the WCS leadership team. During this time of transition, The Board will continue to oversee the process of permanently filling this CEO position.
